

Questionnaire for the INGOs recovery Phase

- Level of INGOs support for the duty bearers in strategy and capacity development in post disaster loss and damage assessment, recovery planning and strategy development for the sectors.
- INGOs strategy for the national and subnational in improving women, girls access to government legislation body for participating in inclusive decision making process for gender responsive recovery planning and project development
- Supporting duty bearer in Cyclone, Flood and Drought recovery needs assessment, project prioritization, planning, project design and implementation. Supporting in Annual development planning and gender responsive recovery budgeting process. Supporting duty bearer in how district and village level local disaster recovery plan need to consider the SADD datasets on gender impacts of major disaster
- Strategy development on local stakeholder engagement, total recovery investment needs, women entrepreneurship design, supporting and progress tracking at local level.
- Supporting government's recovery efforts in protection, shelter, WASH & health, food security and other sectoral disaster recovery and developments
- INGOS support for developing Community Resilience Programs, Women headed green interspersed development, fishers entrepreneurship, agroforestry, high value cropping, livestock farming, Integrated Farm Management (IFM), Integrated Nutrition management etc.
- Government microcredit, fiscal facility, Digital Financing System for boosting livelihood income generation activities (IGA), women headed sustainable entrepreneurship for ensuring food security and boosting rural economy.
- Supporting Government in Rehabilitation and reconstruction of basic lifeline service delivery process.
- INGOs support for community awareness raising and developing and Strengthening or implementing early warning systems to improve preparedness for future cyclones and other natural disasters.
- INGOs support for local gender machinery empowerment gender being integrated in Post Disaster recovery interventions